

30th September 2008

Dear Valued Customer,

I am contacting you to put an end to all the malicious rumors that are being passed around concerning the future of Worldwide Destinations. These rumors have been circulated by competitors that have looked upon the death of my brother as an opportunity to destroy the good name of Worldwide Destinations and elevate their own standing in the market place.

Please accept my personal assurance that Worldwide Destinations is not in administration! All sales past, present and future are perfectly safe.

I would also like to take this opportunity to offer my sincerest apologies for the lack of communication that has been coming out of the UK office. This is something that I am currently addressing, and you can be assured that the procedures that I am implementing will rectify these issues.

Furthermore I would like to say a big thank you to all our kind customers that have offered their respects and have supported us through this difficult period. With your help we will continue to prosper and provide excellent investment opportunities.

Worldwide Destinations has successfully pioneered developments in various countries throughout the world, and we will continue to do so in the future growing from strength to strength!

Yours Sincerely,

Mark Lovelock
Director
